

7th March 2025, All Africa: Continental Re Unveils Shortlist for the 10th Pan-African Re/Insurance Journalism Awards

We are delighted to announce the shortlist for the 10th edition of the Pan African Re/Insurance Journalism Awards (2025)!

As we celebrate a decade of excellence in re/insurance journalism across Africa, these prestigious awards continue to recognize outstanding journalists who bring key industry issues, challenges, and developments to the forefront.

On March 5, 2025, a Judges' Roundtable convened a distinguished panel of industry professionals and media experts who conducted a rigorous review of all the 150 submitted entries. Each submission was carefully evaluated based on quality, depth and impact, ensuring that the finalists represent the very best in re/insurance reporting across the continent.

Next Steps

The winners and runner-up positions will be revealed at the awards ceremony. The 2025 category winners, along with the overall winner, will have the opportunity to travel to Cape Town, South Africa, for the event on April 7–8, 2025, and will be contacted with further details.

This year's ceremony marks a special occasion, coinciding with two major milestones—the 10th CEO Summit and Continental Reinsurance's 40th Anniversary celebrations. Winners will gain exclusive access to leading insurance executives from across Africa, fostering valuable industry connections and insights.

In line with our commitment to developing talent in re/insurance journalism, we will provide all participants with jury feedback to support their growth and professional development in the field.

We sincerely appreciate every journalist who submitted their work for this year's awards. Your dedication and contributions are shaping the future of re/insurance journalism in Africa.
